RICHMOND, Va., March 22.-Colonel John Walter Fairfax died today at his Leesylvania, Prince William county, Va., in his eightieth year. He was well-known veteran of the Civil war having held the rank of colonel in the Confederate army. In 1884 he succeeded Colonel Zorrell as ranking officer on the staff of General Longstreet. Owing to his dash and gallantry, Colonel Fairfax has been characterized in history as

'Longstreet's fighting aide." No personage in Virginia, perhaps, em odied more uniquely the characteristics of the old-time Southerner than did Colonel Fairfax. IMPORTANCE OF OWNING OUR EMBASSY BUILDINGS

BERLIN, March 22—The correspondent of the Associated Press inquired recently of Charlemagne Tower. American embassador in Berlin, whether it is true that the Government intends to buy buildings for its embassies in the capitals of Europe. Mr. Tower replied that he knew nothing officially as yet, although he understands that Congress is now considering the expedicincy of buying such houses at least in London, Paris and Berlin. In answer to a question as to the imat least in London, Paris and Berlin.
In answer to a question as to the importance of such a step, Mr. Tower said.
"Yes, we need such buildings for our diplomatic missions in Europe, and the fact that we need them very badly is precisely the reason why we should not be hasty in our decision, but should select with care. An embassy building that might have seemed suitable and fully sufficient twenty years ago would be absolutely incommensurate today, because the United States plays a very different part in the world from what they did twenty years ago, and they are bound to increase in importance and power in twenty years to come."

SEVENTH MEMBER THAT BODY HAS LOST IN YEAR

Was Unfitted in Physique and Temperament of Contest With Typhoid Fever.

WASHINGTON, Murch 22 -- United States Senator William James Bryan of Florida died at the Providence hospital at 8:30 o'clock this morning of typhoid fever. It was only seventythree days since he took his seat as the successor of the late Senator Stephen R. Mallory, who died December 23, and thirty three days of that time was spent in his fight against disease. Several times during Mr. Bryan's illness his friends desnaired of covery, but as late as last night the report was given out that his condition had taken a turn for the better death today, therefore, came as a sur-prise, and a distinct shock.

Unfitted for Battle. In physique Mr. Bryan was unfitted to withstand a protracted fever. He was slight of build and of nervous temperament. He came to Washington early in January from the warm climate of Florida, and from the day of his arrival was far from well. Finally he was compelled to give up and was taken to Providence hospital. During the last few days of his illness he was attended by specialists from Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore.

In Mr. Bryan the Senate loses the seventh member by death since the adjournment of the 59th Congress on March 4 a year ago. They were the two late Senators from Alabama, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Pettus, Mr. Mallory of Florida; Mr. Latimer of South Carolina; Mr. Proctor of Vermont; Mr. Whyte of Maryland, and Mr. Bryan.

Should the powers, however, decide to keep the warships in this harbor, he would not object, but he added that there was no necessity for such a thing; there was no possibility of a popular outbreak against the foreign residents. The Government, continued the President did not intend to take further action looking to the prosecution of the participants in the recent revolution, except in the case of the distoyal soldiers, who are subject to military punishment.

The Government, he said, gave proof of its good faith in permitting the embarkation at Gomilves of General Firmin and his fellow-comspirators without exacting any pledges from them. He thought the refugees in the legations here should welcome a return to their homes to resume their avocations.

CANTONESE ANGERED

CANTON, March 22.—The greatest indignation prevails here against the Government for yielding to the Japanese demands in the Tatsu Maru case, it being considered that the Government's action in this matter has brought disgrace upon this province. The Self-Government society of Canton has organized several monster indignation meetings, at which resolutions were adopted that the anniversary of the release of the Tatsu Maru he observed as a day of public mourning. The resolutions also declared a boycott against Japanese goods.

More than 50,000 persons attended the mass meetings held yesterdiny, buildings were draped in mourning and twenty or more orators delivered deminicatory speeches. Among the speakers was a 21-year-old boy, whose declaration against the Japanese caused the greatest enthusiasm. A great number among those who had assembled thereupon divested themselves of Japanese-made garments, including caps and handkerchiefs, and made a huge bonfire of them. One dealer in Japanese goods offered to sacrifice his entire stock.
